A MESSAGE FROM THE TEACHER

I hope everyone is enjoying the long weekend. Today I attended 2 sessions of professional development for our teacher workday. Although I missed being with the kids, my mind is spinning with new ideas for using open-ended questions and giving quality feedback, using more pro-active reminding teacher language, and finding ways to develop a more culturally responsive classroom. It was nice to be able to have this opportunity to expand my knowledge in these areas.

Thanks to all the parents for sending in refreshments for our Fall Party and to Kinley, Thomas, Warner and Charlotte's moms for helping out. The students had a great time decorating (and eating) cookies, making lollipop ghosts and munching on the other healthy snacks sent in. Check out the kids' creative costumes on our blog!
