A MESSAGE FROM THE TEACHER

Last week was packed with rehearsals, Read Across America Day, and our Patriotic Music Performance. Thanks to all the parents for sending in extra snack and to the parents who volunteered to read to the class for the 2nd grade pretend sleepover... Ms. Liles, Ms. Griffith, Ms. Simmons and Ms. Callihan. We had fantastic weather to read in the tents and even had a bit of time to read in the tunnel!

Also, a big thank you to all the parents for attending the evening music performance last Friday. The kids' performance was awesome and the display of their US Symbols projects looked fabulous! Check out our blog for lots of new pictures from this week.

LAST WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

Reading: Free choice books, Toys Go Out read aloud

Writing: Began cursive handwriting!
Collaborative paragraph for choice of US Symbols project

Math: Finished data unit and took unit 4 test, ST Math and Reflex

Social Studies: US Symbols projects, Guidance lesson with Ms. Joyner on careers

Other fun stuff: Pretend Sleepover for Read Across America Day, Grade 2-3 music performance, Art and Creativity links for STEM time
