A MESSAGE FROM THE TEACHER

Monday is our field trip to Natural Bridge. Chaperones, please arrive at 8:00. We will leave by 8:15.

Third quarter report cards are now available via Parent Portal. Please e-mail if you have any questions or would like to conference about your child's progress. If you would rather wait until end-of-year testing takes place, the best time to meet is the last week in May.

Recycle projects are due Tuesday. Parent help is allowed, but students should do the planning and write-up. Students should include the projects purpose or use in the write up.

LAST WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

Literacy: Finish small group novels and short stories, story elements for independent reading, read aloud: The Tale of Despereaux

Writing: cursive writing, The Many Faces of Me Comic Life project and writing

Math: fractions of sets and wholes, mixed numbers (2 ½, for example), + and - review

Science: Plants: Magic School Bus Goes to Seed, Interactive sites Growing Plants and Plant Lifecycles, Oh Deer game to show the interdependence of animals and habitat resources

Other fun stuff: STEM: finish Jack and the Parachute Challenge
