A MESSAGE FROM THE TEACHER

Hello parents! Welcome back after all the snow. We will be playing a little catch up these next few days to squeeze in all our holiday activities as well as stay on target with curriculum. Thanks to all the parents for helping with the Holiday Traditions assignment last week. The stories were wonderful, and we will paint the pictures with watercolors Friday. Our big event will be making individual gingerbread houses next Tuesday! Remember that each student will need to send in one can of frosting by tomorrow, the 14th. Reminders went home in the homework folder today to those who also signed up to send in gingerbread house supplies.
