A MESSAGE FROM THE TEACHER

Hello parents! This week we continued to explore new apps and websites for reading, learned how to choose a book, introduced word study, and jumped in further to content. We also learned some unique things about each other that we did not know before from our Mystery Bags. I noticed the students love to share their interests from home! Next week we will start beginning of the year reading assessments. I hope everyone enjoys the long weekend!

LAST WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

Reading: There's An Ant in Anthony, The Napping House, How to Read a Book, Tony Baloney School Rules, Big Al, Labor Day, Raz Plus, Epic, and Story Line Online web sites
Writing: My Family, Hopes and Dreams
Math: coin attributes and values, writing numbers through 120, using the hundreds board, adding one-digit to two-digit numbers
Science/SS: extreme weather including hurricanes and tornadoes, Labor Day, rights and responsibilities, responsibilities at home and at school, classroom rules
Other Fun Stuff: sharing Mystery Bags, indoor recess, a visit from Ms. Poole, the Talent and Resource Development Teacher, STEAM: Building with our LEGO Learn to Learn sets!
